His Journey

JC Mathews was born on November 11, 1935 to the union of Sam and Lena Mathews in Center, Texas. He received his formal education from a public school in Center, Texas.

JC Mathews accepted Christ as his personal Lord and Savior at an early age and was united with St. Mary Missionary Baptist Church in Ida, Louisiana.

He met and united in holy matrimony with Ms. Addie Boxy. They were married for over 50 years and this union was blessed with three children. They met in 1961 in Mira, Louisiana then married after relocating to Houston, Texas in where they bought a home and enjoyed a nice life.

He worked for Lone Star Heat Treating Corporation as a Heat Treater for twenty-seven (27) years. In his leisure time, he enjoyed cooking and gardening vegetables. He often shared the greens and tomatoes he grew with friends and neighbors. He loved his family and he preferred being home more than anywhere else.

JC Mathews departed this life on January 31, 2022. He is preceded in death by his parents, Sam and Lena Mathews; sisters, Luella Russell, Lurlene Reed, Bernice Stewart, Willie Mae Mathews; brothers, John L. Mathews, Thomas Mathews.

He leaves to cherish his memory to: his wife, Addie Mathews; their children, Katherine (Gary) Williams, Loretta Mathews, Kenneth Mathews; Grandchildren - Jasmine Williams, Justin Williams. Also, his children from a previous marriage: Christine Easley, Annie Marie Mathews, Judy Windham, Ronnie Mathews, and their children. And many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
