So then, whether we live or

A Beautiful Journey

"LOVING MOTHER, GRANDMOTHER, SISTER, AUNT, IN-LAW & FRIEND"

Ruby Mae Jackson Wilson graced the Earth with her beautiful presence in Houston, Texas on December 12, 1943. She was born to proud and loving parents, James Jim Jackson and Golie Stanley Jackson, and was one of the six children born through their union. She grew up in Houston, Texas in the Sunnyside area and attended Evan E. Worthing Senior High School. She furthered her studies at Houston Business College.

With the blessing of being raised in a faith-filled home, Ruby accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She was a member of Berean Missionary Baptist Church and enjoyed all aspects of life, from going to church and reading her bible, to playing bingo, going to the casino and swimming. She was a well-rounded individual who most often was the life of the party. She was well loved by all of her family, friends and members of the community.

Over the years, Ruby worked as a Dietary Aid in the hospital and as a Nurses Aid in the nursing home. She was also a hair stylist and cashier. More than anything, Ruby was a Triple Heart Bypass survivor, Breast Cancer survivor, stroke survivor and so much more! She fought a soldier's fight all the way until the end.

On January 27, 2022, Ruby Mae Jackson Wilson departed this life. She was preceded in death her parents; three brothers, James C. Jackson, Joseph Jackson, and Donald Ray Jackson; and one grandson, Jonathan Combs.

She leaves to cherish her memory three sons; Thomas Combs, Jr., Thomas Ray (Sharon) Combs, and Tommy B. Combs; three daughters, Treva Combs, Rivette Franklin, and Cherry Randle; brother; Leo Jackson; sister; Goldie Shepherd; sister-in-law; Mary Jackson; six grandchildren, Tyrone Moore, Dynasty Combs, Thomas Ray Combs, Jr., Eddie Randle, Jr., Erica Randle, and Cherika Randle; and a host of great grandkids, nephews, nieces, and extended family and friends.

Special Memories

Special Memories

"SHE IS MORE PRECIOUS THAN RUBIES..."

(Proverbs 3:15)

To Our Mom

*You heard God's whisper calling you home,
You didn't want to go and leave us alone.
You loved us so much, you held on tight,
Till all the strength was gone
and you could no longer fight.
He had called your name twice before,
You knew you couldn't make Him wait anymore.
So you gave your hand to God
and slowly drifted away,
Knowing that with our love
we will be together again someday.
They say there is a reason,
they say time will heal.
Neither time or reason will change the way we feel.
Gone are the days we used to share
but in our hearts you are always there.
The gates of memories will never close,
we will miss you more than anyone knows.*

- Always and Forever, YOUR CHILDREN -

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you and whispered, come to me.
With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away,
And although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest,
God broke our heart to prove to us, He only takes the best.
Heaven has a place reserved for grandmother's sweet and kind;
But we had a little heaven on earth in the woman we called grandmother
Who was most definitely, "One of a kind!"

- Love you Granny, YOUR GRANDCHILDREN -

If Love Was a Crayon

We are far too young to understand what losing you means today.
The absence of your voice, your touch, is more than we can say.
You loved us little people in such a special way that compares to nothing we know thus far or even words to say.
Great grandmother's are so precious, so unique and so rare
To take you away from us right now just doesn't seem to be fair.
If love was a crayon it would look exact you
Ruby red on the outside and vibrant through and through.
We will hold onto your hand just like we always have Until we see you again somehow, someday in life's amazing path.
The one thing that we know for sure that will never ever change
If love was the color of a crayon, it would have your beautiful name.

- With Love, YOUR GREAT GRANDCHILDREN -
