

Message From Heaven

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Love you all, Melvin

Our Sincerest Appreciation...

"Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted..."

We are deeply and sincerely grateful for each and every expression of love and concern extended to us during this time. We have been comforted by your visits, telephone calls, cards, flowers, prayers, and other thoughtful deeds. Your thoughtfulness will always be cherished. It is our earnest and sincere prayer that all of God's richest blessings be showered on you in unlimited and abundant measures.

Honoring The Life & Legacy of

*Melvin Lee
Henderson*

August 24, 1947 - February 22, 2022

*"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race,
I have kept the faith..." - 2 Timothy 4:7*

His Loving Journey

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”

(Revelation 21:4)

Melvin Lee Henderson was born to Leon and Essie Henderson on Aug 24, 1947. Melvin was the third oldest of four boys. He was a man that loved God and his family.

Melvin accepted Christ at an early age. He attended Growing Valley Baptist Church in Haughton, Louisiana; where he served as a deacon until he moved to Houston, Texas after the death of his wife.

Melvin attended and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in 1965.

He married his high school sweetheart, Doretha Henderson. Two children were born, Delisa and Kyndra, through their union.

Melvin was employed with Southwestern Electric Power Company. He worked as a Lineman and troubleshooter for many years until he retired. He had many hobbies such as boxing, fishing, hunting, and mechanics.

Melvin was preceded in death by his wife, Doretha Henderson; his parents, Leon and Essie Henderson; and his brothers, Leroy Henderson, Leon Henderson Jr., and Odis Henderson Sr.

He leaves to cherish his memories: two daughters DeLisa (Dwayne), Kyndra (Keith); four grandchildren, D.J. Trey, Kris, and Kynadie; sisters-in-law, Erma, Bobby, and Charlotte; brother-in-law, Ernest (Blanche); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

*Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets this earth is only one...
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched...
For nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.*
