Wilbert Waddle was born in Dallas Texas, on December 5, 1944, to Eugene and Ira Waddle. He was the youngest of 6 children. He received his formal education from Kashmere Garden High School in Houston, Texas.

He accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized. He was a member of Fontaine First Baptist Church and served as a faithful member for 43 years under the leadership of Pastor John H. Brown. He was an active member and served until God called him home.

He was employed at Union Pacific Railroad in Houston, Texas where he retired with distinction after 32 years of service. He was an avid deer hunter, who loved the outdoors. He was a member of the Senior Line Dance Program where he served as a Board member for 15 years and enjoyed attending Tom Bass Regional Park where he and his friends participated in numerous activities and events. He also enjoyed barbecuing, traveling, and spending time with his family. He was a great cook, devoted father, and a man of great integrity.

He was preceded in death by his Father and Mother; One Sister, Joyce Waddle Watson; Two Brothers, Eddie Waddle and Eugene Waddle, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memories Two Sisters, Rosie Mae Coleman and Annie Jean Bullard; Two Daughters, Tiffany Nichole Waddle and Iris LaFloy Waddle; Two grandchildren Dominique Jamal Waddle and Jamar Paul Wynn; and a host relatives and friends.

But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus.

RECESSIONAL

Dear Dad,

You were the best Father as far as I can see.
And when I needed you, you were always there for me.
When I called, you always picked up the phone,
and when I needed you, you never left me alone.
I will cherish all the memories and time you spent with me.
The many conversations, your laughter while watching TV.
I will miss your smile and your warm embrace
My memories of you will never be erased.
So as I lay you to rest
I must say job well done
For being the best dad and for the race that you have won.
You have fought the good fight, you have finished the race,
and most importantly you have kept the faith.
So, until we meet again, I'll think of you always
And in my heart, you will always remain.

Love,

Tiffany and Iris
