In Loving Memory of DONTASHIA TRENA ZONE

Dontashia Trena Zone made her beautiful entrance into the world on February 7, 1973. She was born in Pineville, Louisiana, the cherished daughter of Vivian Ann Zone and the late Sammie Lee Harris. From childhood, she carried a gentle strength and a welcoming spirit that made others feel at ease.

Dontashia was baptized at First Edgefield Baptist Church in Cheneyville, Louisiana, where her faith first blossomed. After moving to Houston, she became a devoted attendee of New Faith Church, serving faithfully until her transition.

Education was one of Dontashia's greatest passions. She attended Lincoln Williams Elementary School in Cheneyville, Louisiana, and Ryan Middle School and Jack Yates Senior High School, both in Houston, Texas. Determined to pursue her calling to help others, she earned her Bachelor of Arts in Social Work from Texas Southern University, later completing her Master of Arts through the University of Colorado online. Her academic achievements reflected her commitment to service and lifelong learning.

In her leisure time, Dontashia found joy in the simple, meaningful moments that made life feel full. She loved relaxing at home, listening to music, watching her favorite shows, and enjoying peaceful days that allowed her to unwind. But her greatest happiness came from being surrounded by her family. Time with them was her favorite place to be, and the memories they created together will remain a lasting gift.

On June 22, 2026, Dontashia departed this life in Houston, Texas. Her legacy is one of compassion, resilience, and unwavering devotion to her family.

She is lovingly remembered by her mother, Vivian Ann Zone; her son, Ronald Lynn Jones III; her sister, Sammeatta Allen Goudeau (Ronald); and her brothers, Terry Zone, Derrick Zone, Layandre Zone, and Tywan Allen (Shontell). Her grandchildren, Kay'lani Frank-Jones and Jayden Layandre Frank-Jones, brought immense joy to her life. She also leaves behind a host of relatives and friends who will forever carry her memory with love and gratitude.

Dontashia's life was a testament to faith, perseverance, and kindness, qualities that will continue to inspire all who knew her.

A Son's Love

*The saying goes you will eventually get over it,
but is that actually the truth?
Healing from missing you is something that will happen when I see you again.
Even though you're in a better place,
I will always believe you are still here.
You told me you'll never leave
but you're not physically here anymore.
Times are drastically changing but I can feel your spirit every step I take.
I'll never get over the fact you'll never come back,
but I know you would want me to keep pushing.
Love is just a four-letter word that you tell someone.
I feel so much more of a connection I cannot even explain.
I will always cherish you and everything you instilled in your only son. Thank you and see you again.*
