His Journey

On December 13, 1957, a son, James Nathan, was born in Houston, Texas to Alma and Nathaniel White. He was an only child and the apple of his mother's eye.

James accepted Christ, was baptized at an early age, and worshiped at Riceville Mount Olive Baptist Church for many years. He later joined Christ Like Church.

He attended Houston Independent District schools and graduated from Sharpstown High School in 1977. James worked diligently in security services which suited his servant heart. Outside of work, he was an avid book reader and enjoyed fishing and hunting along with collecting books and other special memorabilia.

James married Gwendolyn Mosley in 1987, and to this union a son, Justin Jerome and daughter, Korin Delise were born. They were the apples of his eye. They recall many hours spent eating chicken, watching movies, and playing video games with their dad.

His journey on earth is one marked by love, compassion, and an unwavering faith in God. People who knew James, said he spoke kind words, was willing to lend a helping hand but vividly remember his infectious smile and overwhelming laughter. He was a shining light in the lives of those who had the privilege of knowing him and is sincerely missed.

James' absence leaves a void in the hearts of his family, friends, and the many lives he touched. He is preceded in death by his parents, Alma and Nathaniel White and Great Uncle Lucious (Luchie) Thompson. He leaves to cherish his memories: son

Justin J. White, daughter Korin D. White, loving friend, Sharon Morgan-Platt, cousins Kelvin White (Sharon) and Lillie Ann Allen, best friend Anthony Arbuckle, friend Edward Ri'chard and a village of cousins and friends.

Tributes

Our father was a man who had smiles that brighten days. He was someone who always had good stories to tell. His spirit will forever live on in the memories we cherish. Gone but never forgotten, we love and miss you, Dad. Rest in Peace.

-Justin & Korin White

James, your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure. You are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.

-Ann

Proverbs 18:24 says a man who has friends must himself be friendly and that James was. In the 25-plus years I've known him, there was nothing we couldn't talk about.

He'd give the shirt off his back if someone needed it and always looked out for others-especially my mom, Bettie and my grandson, Donovan.

He will be greatly missed.

-Sharon
