Obituary

Marcia Gibson Tutt was born on September 4, 1945, in Teague, Texas. She was the youngest girl of six children born to the late Henry and Willie Mae Gibson. With a loving heart and a kind spirit, she entered into eternal rest on Thursday, May 7, 2026, surrounded by loved ones and friends.

Marcia graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in Teague, Texas in 1963. A lifelong learner, she was a distinguished alumni of Texas Southern University. Following her graduation from TSU, she continued her career at Southwestern Bell, where she initially began working as a student intern while pursuing her undergraduate degree. Enjoying her career with the company, she retired after 28 amazing years.

She entered into marriage with her first husband, Elwin Oubre, who preceded her in death. She later married Harvey Tutt, and in January 2026, they celebrated 28 years of marital bliss.

Marcia accepted Christ at an early age and had a devout relationship with Him. She was a faithful member of South Park Baptist Church for 20 years until she joined Greater Outreach Missionary Baptist Church, where she remained a dedicated member at the time of her passing. A dutiful servant known for her “eagle eye”, she spent many years as the church secretary and a member of the finance committee. With heartfelt praise, she raised her voice to God as a member of the GOMBC choir.

Marcia applied the same love of service to her community. She served as a Harris County Precinct Judge for over 20 years until she retired from that role. Advocating for community, she also acted as President of Tropicana Village Civic Club.

An avid traveler, she enjoyed visiting numerous scenic destinations with her family. A great cook and baker, she was the consummate hostess of family and friends at holidays and special events. Finally, she was a beautiful fashionista, setting style trends for all to follow.

Also preceded in death by her siblings and a stepchild, she leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Harvey; stepchildren, Anthony Bullock, Ashley Tutt, Cheryl Fruge, Hazel Hardin, Joseph Tutt, Jacqueline Tutt, Yolanda Tutt; God children Norman Bell, Robert Gibson Sr., Cheri Jolivette, and Jacquelyn Gibson-Smith, and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family, and friends.

Acknowledgement

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted. Matthew 5:4
Words of thanks seem so inadequate for all of the kindness that has been bestowed upon our family. We thank you for the sincere words of solace. We are finding strength in knowing that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. May God bless each of you richly. ~The Family~

I've Journeyed

I've journeyed in sense trying to visualize heaven.

I've journeyed in sense believing God's creation throughout the Universe.

Marcia has journeyed into the unquestionable realm of God that man can't truly grasp.

In sense, Marcia has journeyed to receive her Robe, Crown, Wings where many mansions are promised.

Marcia has fulfilled her journey.

My Beloved, may you fulfill yours in Christ.

Love, Norman

Our Golden Heart

You lit up every room you entered,
--laughter, jokes, and love to spare,
on those quiet afternoons together,
just a game show and your presence there.

Your love has carried us through,
strength in everything you do.

For every smile and tear,
you stood by us year by year.

Our golden heart has found it rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the very best.

So rest now, Marcia, you've earned it, safe in the arms of His grace.

We will carry your love until we meet again in that bright and better place.

Love, The Grandchildren
