Obituary

Amanda Caldwell was born February 3, 1959 to Samuel Bell Sr., (deceased) and Zeola Lee Walker.

Amanda was raised in Fourth Ward in Houston, Texas, where she attended Gregory Elementary and Abraham Lincoln Junior Senior High School, graduating in 1977. She played volleyball, ran track, cheered for the school, and she was crowned Ms. Abraham Lincoln. Amanda loved being athletic, it was one of her passions. Even after having three children, she remained the fastest runner in the neighborhood. Taking on all challengers, whoever knocked on the door to challenge her to a race. She won every time.

Amanda was married to Victor Lee Young Sr. They had three children: Tamara Lee Young Knowles, Victor Lee Young Jr. and Johnathan Lee Young.

Amanda started working for Bank of America when she was 22 years old. She was a loyal worker at Bank of America for over 33 years. As a manager, she was always eager to help others. She did not like to miss work unless she was sick and sometimes, she would still go in.

On July 3, 1982, Amanda dedicated her life to Jehovah and was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She was a beloved member of the Spring Branch and Dowling/Midtown Congregations where she was known for her warm smile, generous spirit, and unwavering faith.

She later married Robert Lane Caldwell, who she affectionately called "Sweetie". They shared 29 wonderful years of marriage until his passing on January 27, 2020.

Amanda leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Zeola Walker; her siblings, Samuel Bell Jr. and Jacqueline ("Jackie") Davis; her aunts, Doris Kuykendall, Vivian Scott, and Ruby Ann Brown; her uncles, Milton Lee and Norris Lee. She is also survived by her children: Tamara Knowles, Victor Young Jr., and Johnathan Young; her niece and nephew, Tomeika Davis and Henry Tyler Jr; her grandchildren, Stephen Knowles, Ryan Knowles, Andrea Knowles, James Young, and Riley Young. In addition, she leaves behind a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws from the Young, Conerly, and Caldwell families, and many dear friends whom she loved deeply.
